Greetings and Introduction2. “Hear It”, “See It”, “Do It!”, “Measure It”, “Celebrate It!”3. “Hear It”: Start with the Answer4. We believe this class is perhaps the most serious and significant clinical class of your career. Endodontic competence, consistency, and confidence are the fastest way to grow practice and can be, at the same time, highly satisfying and profitable. You came here for a purpose and intended result. What is it? We invite you to vividly imagine in the theater of your mind that it is now 5:00pm of the last day. The class is coming to an end. Imagine you got what you came here for. What does that “One Thing” look like in your imagination, feel like in your gut, and what do you now believe about yourself? In order to achieve what you just imagined, we both have a job over the next 96 hours... Your job: Identify the positive endodontic difference that you want for yourself Our job: Teach and develop the skills and internal capacities to make those endodontic differences a reality <ol style="list-style-type: none">5. 3X5 Vision statement exercise6. “WOW! What an incredible course on Endodontics! This has been a real culmination in my Endodontic career - and now to really have learned proper endo techniques and fully feel confident to do it Monday morning! Both Drs. John and Jordan West are truly the best in their field - and really teach it well. Thank you.”
